A CONVENIENT TRUTH FOR KIDS

(LOS ANGELES) When Al Gore speaks about the changing environment, adults listen. When the lessons from The Little Witch of Wichita are presented, children listen...and learn. This bewitching family musical is a tasteful brew of educational themes such as protecting the environment, caring for endangered species, and respecting one's self and others. The Little Witch of Wichita not only fosters an appreciation for quality theater entertainment, but also is dedicated to the mission of raising the consciousness of youth today.

"Something's Brewing" at The Geffen Playhouse Saturday Scene where the award-winning production of The Little Witch of Wichita will take place on October 7, 14, and 21, 2006 at 11:00 AM. Appropriate for children ages 5 and older, tickets range from $10 to $15 dollars.

Written by Beth Martin Brown (book), Sandy Sherman (lyrics), and Kevin Kaufman (music), this one-hour musical has all the excitement of Halloween---witches, cauldrons, and "trick or treat"---as it follows a young girl's journey through an enchanted forest where along the way she encounters three wise characters who teach her these important lessons.

As all prepare for Witch Hazel's annual Halloween Happening, Katrina, The Little Witch of Wichita, is tricked into going into the deep dark woods by Eastwitch and Westwitch, She is trailed by Butch, Witch Hazel's son, as she travels deeper into the woods where she encounters Armando (an endangered Mayorcan Mambo Mouse), the Peek-a-Boo Tree, and the Very Old Man.

Eleven original and lively songs enhance this story that has had successful productions across the country, has been broadcast on Torrance Cable Television (Torrance, CA.) and has been the winner of the Los Angeles Cultural Affairs Award.
